A Harrow dance group travelled to Swindon to perform at national building society's Diwali event.

During the evening of November 17, 2015, around 100 colleagues from Nationwide's head office gathered to celebrate the Indian festival of Diwali – also known as the festival of lights.

A dinner was followed by entertainment in the form of Bollywood, Bhangra and Gujarati Dandiya dancing.

Harrow based K'z Dance Entertainment Ltd - headed by Kalpesh Zalavadiya - wowed the audience by performing 'Nagada Sang Dhol Baje' a famous Indian song.

Mr Zalavadiya had also choreographed a Bollywood-themed workshop, during which Nationwide colleagues learned the steps to the beats of 'Jai Ho' and Bhangra dance.

They went on to perform in pairs and groups using 'Dandiya' sticks.
