

Pupils celebrated Diwali by learning some Indian traditional and Bollywood dancing

10:45, 16 NOV 2015

UPDATED 11:02, 16 NOV 2015

BY LAURA MOWAT

A Buckinghamshire school got into the spirit of the Indian festival

104 SHARES

COMMENTS

Enter your e-mail for our weekly newsletter

Subscribe

Little Missenden Infant School held a workshop to celebrate Diwali

Kalpesh Zalavadiya of K'z Dance Entertainment Ltd taught the children from Little Missenden Church of England School some short routines, which they performed at the end of the workshop.

Megan White, five, said: "I really liked the stick dance, it was great fun."

Ella White, six, said: "I liked learning about the story of Rama and Sita and then learning the dance moves."

Diwali is an ancient festival, which celebrates the victory of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance, good over evil and hope over despair.

Little Missenden Infant School held a workshop to celebrate Diwali

Get_Bucks

my smartprice

Micro SD Cards at ₹1

SHOP NOW

Most Read in News

- 1 Honda
Motorbike rider's body discovered in M40 undergrowth
- 2 Chesham
Thieves steal 150 Christmas trees from a Chesham farm
- 3 Gerrards Cross
Former Gerrards Cross finance broker denies raping air hostess
- 4 Local News
Missing Chalfont St Giles girl found
- 5 Local News
Scenes of Chalfont St Giles village life in days gone by

Most Recent

Bucks
Bucks couple who have fostered children for 30 years honoured with national award

Thames Valley Police
Three found guilty of running large cannabis factory in Aylesbury

Bucks
More than 80 people in Bucks are waiting for a transplant, new figures reveal

Chiltern District Council
This week's planning applications for Chiltern

Local News
Gerrards Cross school girls to grow space seeds

Also on Get Bucks

Bulldozers spotted on

More fun over Gerrards

Man hit by train in

Pedestrian dies after