

Harrow dancers dazzle as Trafalgar Square marks Diwali

1 day ago / Bethan Hâf Marsh, Reporter

Trafalgar Square was taken over by crowds of colourful dancers to help celebrate Diwali in London.

Hosted by the Mayor of London Sadiq Khan, the K'z Dance Entertainment Ltd group based in Harrow, performed traditional folk dancing routines such as Garba and Dandiya-Raas on Sunday October 16.

Diwali is a Hindu festival with lights and marks the beginning of the financial year in India. Kalpesh Zalavadiya, the founder of K'z Dance Entertainment Ltd, said: "We are delighted and proud to have been invited at one of the biggest asian event of the year.

"Everyone put in a lot of hard work and hours of dance rehearsals."

The dancers then invited members of the public to dance with them and helped some learn a few moves themselves.

The K'z Dance Entertainment Ltd has previously performed at Wembley Stadium and taken part in Diwali Celebrations at the House of Commons in Westminster.

Most popular

- 1 No short sentence for midget burglar jailed for breaking into Coulsdon homes
- 2 Crystal Palace player pays tribute to 'very good friend' shot dead in Broad Green
- 3 UPDATE: 18-year-old murder victim named
- 4 PICTURES: See inside 'Britain's smallest pub' set to open in Greenwich
- 5 Travellers take over old Klinger factory in Sidcup - and start 'charging people to dump waste' there
- 6 Harrow doctor who ran illegal money lending business spared jail
- 7 'It is the wrong park for a circus' – neighbours fear half-term show could destroy community park
- 8 Police 'increasingly concerned' for missing 16-year-old girl
- 9 Back to work for £1.2m Bromley lottery winner - but not before she buys £5 lipstick
- 10 Teens have control! Aislinn Kirby, Rosebery School
- 11 'Dream' for Wallington man as nephew he's not seen for seven years arrives from Calais 'jungle' camp
- 12 South Croydon nuisance is first in London convicted of riding hoverboard on pavement
- 13 Dude, where's my car? Greenwich woman furious after learning fate of her vandalised Micra
- 14 Boy George calls Harrow rapper Honey G a 'joke' as she makes it through to week 3
- 15 Pharmacy urges people to sign petition opposing council's stop-