

Young Citizen Award

Video

Youngsters show off their best Bollywood moves in Ilford playground

16:15 16 June 2016 Laura Burnip

Pupils at St Peter and Paul's Primary School took part in a bollywood event for their parents run by Kalpesh Zalavadiya from K'z Dance Entertainment

Youngsters showed off their best Bollywood moves in a playground performance for parents and families.

Shares: 1

Pupils at St Peter and Paul's Primary School took part in a bollywood event for their parents by Kalpesh Zalavadiya from K'z Dance Entertainment

SS Peter and Paul's Catholic Primary School, Gordon Road, Ilford, hosted the event last week, with around 400 pupils from all year groups taking part.

Deputy headteacher Jane Hull said: "It was absolutely fantastic. The kids thoroughly enjoyed it, it was a beautiful sunny day.

"All the teachers joined in, they loved it. It was great."

The event was the culmination of a series of workshops run by Kalpesh Zalavadiya from K'z Dance Entertainment and organised by the school's PE lead Victoria Woodhouse.

GREAT BRITISH LIFE

Discover unique British gifts from top-quality brands today

SHOP NOW

Newsletter Sign Up

Email Address*

Email

Screen Name*

Name

☐ I'm happy to get emails about Archant products and services

☐ I'm happy to get emails from Archant's trusted partners

JOIN

Most read news

Woodford tycoon and 'friend of Michael Jackson' jailed for VAT fraud

Video: Smoke engulfs street during a house fire in Ilford

Plans for 70 homes at Ley Street car showroom recommended for refusal

Residents puzzled after man sets up camp in Wanstead park

Firefighters tackle house blaze in Ilford