Health

f Facebook Search Search...

Education

News Your North Norfolk Sport

Enjoy Cromer More

What's On Buy & Sell

Weather

MPs and Council

Contact Us iWitness24

Business

NORTH NORFOLK NEWS In Brief THIS WEEK'S LOCAL NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

Video

Home

Crime

WATCH: Bollywood fever comes to north Norfolk school

Stuart Anderson

stuart.anderson@archant.co.uk

⊙ 15 October, 2018 - 11:34

with pupils, parents and teachers at Happisburgh Primary School. Picture: STUART ANDERSON Fancy footwork was at the fore in the grounds of a north Norfolk school as a Bollywood dancer hosted a workshop.

Enter your email

Receive the weekly North Norfolk News newsletter directly to your inbox

Subscribe

Our Privacy Policy

Happisburgh Primary School's friends group raised £750 to pay for Kalpesh Zalavadiya from London-based K'z Dance Entertainment to teach around 90 children - as well as parents and staff - the basics of Bollywood dance. Some of the youngsters wore bright clothes to help get into the spirit of the beat-based and rhythmic music made famous by India's booming film industry. Kate Mejri, the school's head, said: "They've been learning dance moves and also about Indian culture. We really feel that's important for the children, to learn about other cultures." One pupil, Amber Jefferies, nine, said: "It's really fun and tiring."

Classmate Nathan Gilbert, also nine, said: "We've learned about the Holi festival, where they decorate each other and throw coloured powder."

More Videos

Useful Links

» Advertise with us >> Send us a story >> Terms & Conditions

© 2018 Archant Community Media Ltd

Most Read

UEA releases name of student, 20, who was found dead in his room

U Yesterday, 17:11 Marc Betts A student who died in his accommodation at the University of East Anglia (UEA) has been named. Read more

SIGN UP >>

'Too many older people' with free bus passes threatens future of Coasthopper, says boss Nesterday, 13:14 David Bale A popular coastal bus route is among a host of rural services under threat because there are too many people using it with a free bus pass, the firm's boss

Read more Martin Wilby Video: Nine dogs with smelly, matted fur found dumped on remote road U Yesterday, 12:07 Donna-Louise Bishop

These are the horrifying images of a group of nine dogs who were found dumped on the side of a north Norfolk country road at night.

Inquest into death of woman at Norfolk police

north Norfolk holiday park opens U Yesterday, 13:24 Lauren Cope

An inquest has opened into the death of a woman who died at a holiday park in north Norfolk. Read more

Royal British Legion shock as First World War commemorative

figure is vandalised Nesterday, 10:43 | Karen Bethell

condemned "heartless vandals" who decapitated a haunting perspex silhouette they placed on a bench next to the town war memorial to honour those who lost their lives in the First World War. Read more Digital Edition

NORTH NORFOLK NEWS

edition today E-edition

Read the North

North Norfolk News weekly

Newsletter Sign Up

Email Address*

Name

from Archant Community Media Limited I am happy for Archant Community third parties (we will not share your information with these third parties unless you give us consent to do so) newsletter Email Name* Keep me up to date on special promotions, products and services Media Ltd to contact me on behalf of Sign up to receive our regular JOIN email newsletter Our Privacy Policy

homes24 jobs24 drive24 mydate24

myphotos24 familynotices24 Classifieds Localsearch24 Let's Talk24

>> Contact us

>> Manage Cookies

>> About us

>> Privacy Policy >> Tell us about an event Cookies Policy >> Contributor's charter

Eastern Daily Press Fakenham& Wells Mercury