

East Anglian Daily Times > News

Pupils have 'awesome day' learning Bollywood dances at school

 Matthew Earth

0

Published: 2:32 PM May 20, 2021

The Bacton youngsters were taught the Bollywood dance routines by Kalpesh Zalavadiya - Credit: John Milton Academy Trust

Bacton Primary School pupils were treated to a masterclass from a Bollywood dancer and performed their own routines in the playground.

Kalpesh Zalavadiya, from K's Dance Entertainment, visited the school, which is part of the John Milton Academy Trust, on Friday, May 14 to give students a taste of the iconic Indian dance routines.

The pupils showed off their dances in the playground - Credit: John Milton Academy Trust

Each class was treated to a Bollywood workshop, where they learned a few complex dance moves, before getting the chance to ask Kalpesh questions about India's culture and customs.

PE co-ordinator Laura Daniels said the children really enjoyed the chance to soak up another culture.

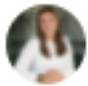

Kalpesh Zalavadiya, from K's Dance Entertainment, teaches the children - Credit: John Milton

Don't Miss

'Kind and caring soulmate' Simon couldn't cope with Covid restrictions

HOLLY HUME

'He would get 25 goals in a team like Ipswich' - Posh put Eisa up for sale

STUART WATSON

Kesgrave Shooting: Teenager shot friend in face with shotgun at close range

MICHAEL STEWARD

Town player-of-the-year Wilson 'the number one priority' as he joins...

ANDY WARREN